Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6 (ESV)

The Corn festival went well. We gave out hundreds of tracts. At times, we were able to help believers with material that they can use to share their faith and understand basic Bible doctrines.

Columbo takes a look at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (LDS) concept of God. Columbo was a TV show detective who was notorious for asking questions in order to close a case with certainty. His signature lines were "just one more thing" and "something bothers me."

Columbo: Dear LDS friend, is it true that the Book of Mormon (BOM) in Alma 11:26-29 teaches that there is one God?

LDS Friend: Yes. There is only one God for this planet.

Columbo: Hum, I am confused. I read in the Book of Abraham, the 4th and 5th chapters, that the gods created the heaven and earth, is this true?

LDS Friend: Yes. However, we only worship one God, Heavenly Father.

Columbo: Interesting. Bruce R. McConkie in his book Mormon Doctrine in the section entitled Plurality of Gods on page 576 says the following about the Father, Son and Holy Ghost: "these three are the only Gods we worship." Is Mr. McConkie saying that the LDS Church teaches there are three gods for this planet and you can worship all three of them?

LDS Friend: I will have to ask my bishop.

Columbo: Okay. OH! By the way, there is just one more thing that bothers me.

LDS Friend: Alright.

Columbo: In the BOM, 3 Nephi 11:17 says: “And they did fall down at the feet of Jesus, and did worship him.” I thought you only worship Heavenly Father. It appears that BOM does not agree with your church leaders. Perhaps, you can ask your bishop this question for me as well. Should I believe the BOM about Jesus and God or you church leaders?

If you are led to contribute financially, we do need your assistance in one of two ways. We need regular contributors who see this missionary work as important to help us meet our needs, and we need special one-time contributors who help us with our big projects. You can make checks payable to Christian Witnesses and send them to the address below. Jude 3 Missions handles our finances; your donations are tax-deductible.
